

Our freedom of speech depends on our having as many outlets for discourse as possible. The fewer the outlets, the fewer the voices. True Democracy depends on the maximum participation of all Americans. Let us have as many outlets for the free expression of ideas as possible. Hitler and Stalin silenced all opposition.